RANK AND PRECEDENCE
Between Land and Sea Officers.

1st. THAT the Admiral or Commander of His Majesty's Fleet have the rank of a Field Marshal of the Army.

2d. That the Admirals, with their Flags on the Main-top-mast Head, have rank with Generals of Horse and Foot.

3d. That Vice-Admirals have rank with Generals.

4th. That Rear Admirals have rank as Major Generals.

5th. That Comodores with broad Pendants, have rank as Brigadier Generals.

6th. That Captains commanding Post-ships, after three years from the date of their first Commissions for a Post-ship, have rank as Colonels.

7th. That all Captains commanding Post-ships have rank as Lieutenant Colonels.

8th. That Captains of his Majesty's ships or vessels, not taking Post, have rank as Majors.

9th. That Lieutenants of his Majesty's ships have rank as Captains.

10th. That the Rank and Precedence of Sea Officers in the Classes above-mentioned, to take place according to the seniority of their respective Commissions as Sea Officers.

11th. That Post Captains commanding Ships or Vessels, that do not give Post, rank only as Majors during their commanding such Vessel.

12th. That nothing in this Regulation shall give any pretence to any Land Officer to command any of His Majesty's Squadrons or Ships, nor to any Sea Officer to command at Land; nor shall either have right to demand the military honours due to their respective ranks, unless such Officers are upon actual Service.
